

PITTSBURGH'S STORY

In Words, Songs & Images

June 3, 2009

7:30 pm

William Pitt Union
Assembly Room
3959 Fifth Ave.
Oakland

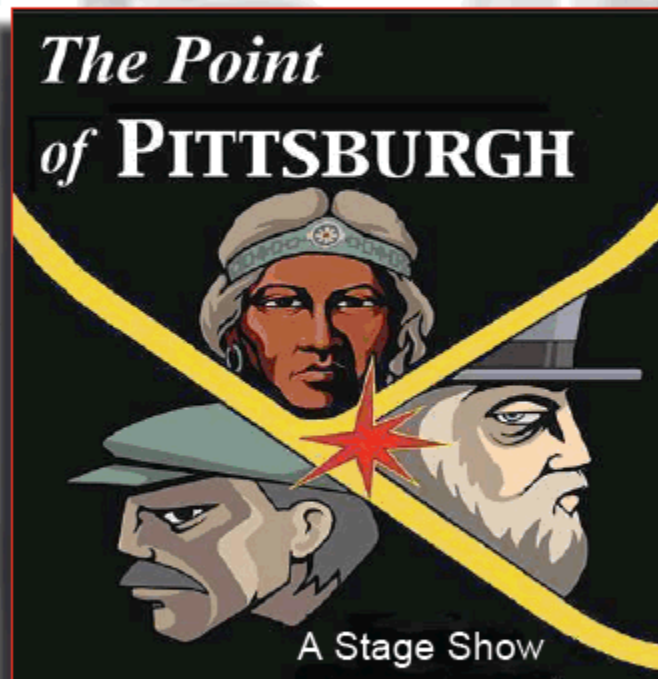

ADMISSION:

$ 20 General Public
$ 10 Students, Seniors
& Unemployed

Pay at door or online:

www.pittsburghfoodbank.org

Presented as part of the 2009 Working Class Studies
Conference: Pitt School of Arts &
Sciences and IUP Labor Center
www.workingclassstudies.pitt.edu

Readings from The Point of Pittsburgh book by
Charles McColleston with music by Mike Stout

Profits go to:

GREATER PITTSBURGH
community
food bank
A member of Feeding America® and

 Just Harvest
A CENTER FOR ACTION AGAINST HUNGER

Artwork: Bill Yund

Join a cast of Pittsburgh notables for a gallop through Pittsburgh's thrilling history from the Ice Age through the heyday of the 1960s. These stories amaze, inspire and give new context to this city, its people and its gifts to the world. Supported by powerful visuals and punctuated by memorable original songs, The Point of Pittsburgh: A Stage Show pays tribute to some of Pittsburgh's greatest unsung heroes and untold moments in time. A must-see for anyone who loves the 'Burgh. Be sure to visit www.pointofpittsburgh.com

JUNE 2009 CAST of READERS Point Of Pittsburgh

1. The Honorable Jim Ferlo, Senator, 38th District PA
2. Peter Wray (Co-Chair, Conservation Committee, Allegheny Group, Sierra Club)
3. Minette Seate (Producer, Black Horizons, WOED)
4. Mary Robb Jackson (Reporter, KDKA)
5. Lydia Hale (Pittsburgh Native American Center)
6. Ed Hale (Pittsburgh Native American Center)
7. John Fetterman (Mayor of Braddock)
8. Dave Crawley ("KD Country," KDKA)
9. Jamie Pennisi (18th C American Indian Cultural Historian)
10. James West (Sculptor, George Washington/Guyasuta statue)
11. Joyce Rothermal (CEO Greater Pgh. Food Bank)
12. Dan Volz - (Director, Center for Healthy Environments & Communities)
13. Maria Spadaro - (U. Pittsburgh undergraduate, Worker Safety & Health)
14. Celeste Taylor (B-PEP, Black Political Empowerment, Vice Chair PA Voice)
15. Larry Glasco (University of Pittsburgh History Department)
16. Wali Jamal - (Actor, Martin Delany: The Pittsburgh Years & Playwright)

17. Andy Masich (President & CEO Sen. John Heinz History Center)
18. Don Dunlevy, (Director & Chairman, United Transportation Union)
19. Sally Wiggen, (News Anchor, WTAE)
20. Fred Redmond (Vice President for Human Affairs, United Steelworkers)
21. Pat Clark (Urban Activist & Managing Partner Jackson Clark)
22. Donna Puleio, (Workers' Memorial Day Committee)
23. Sean George (Journeyman Steamfitter & Worker Safety Advocate)
24. Laney Troutman (Pittsburgh Organizing Group Activist)
25. Peter Oresick (Poet, Chatham University)
26. Steffi Domike (United Steelworkers Associate Member Program)
27. Ken Regal, (Co-Director Just Harvest)
28. Barney Oursler or Paul Lodico (Co-Chairs Mon Valley Unemployed Committee)
29. Fred Sargent (CEO, Sargent Electric)
30. Hilary Chiz (United Steelworkers Civil Rights Department)
31. Judge Joe Williams (Allegheny County Court of Common Pleas)
32. Ted Sohler (Radio Host, WOED FM)
33. Doug Shields (President, Pittsburgh City Council)
34. Chris Moore (On Air Host, WOED)
35. Russ Gibbons, (Secretary, Battle of Homestead Foundation)
36. Chris Potter (Editor, City Paper)
37. Bob Hoover (Pittsburgh Post-Gazette Book Editor and Drama Critic)
38. DeWitt Walton (United Steelworkers)
39. Patricia DeMarco (Executive Director Rachel Carson Homestead Association)
40. Nelson Harrison (Jazz Musician & Educator)
41. Father Jack O'Malley (Labor Chaplain, Allegheny Labor Council)
42. Steve Hansen (Writer, Radio Personality)
43. Sheldon Ingram (Sports Anchor, WTAE)
44. Charles McCollester (Author, The Point of Pittsburgh)